Our Expertise

Well established for over 15 successful years in the industry, dtp entertainment is one of the leading companies within the electronic entertainment sector in Europe. We develop and distribute games of all genres and for all platforms. Our added value distribution service offers Producing, Localisation, Quality Assurance, Marketing, PR and Sales services and is among the best in the German speaking market, having successfully launched many titles to top chart positions. Success stories such as »Divinity II – Ego Draconis«, »Winter Sports«, »Drakensang: River of Time«, »Black Mirror 3« and many more, are proof of our efficient sales and marketing performance.

Games developed by dtp entertainment have won several industry awards, e.g. four »German Computerspielpreis«, a »LARA award« and numerous »German Game Developer Awards« from 2007 until 2010 to name just a few. All of them show our success in producing top quality titles.

Many international partners trust in our well established distribution and marketing services. Our clients include McAfee, Avira, 1C, Focus Home Interactive, Intenium, bitComposer, Lace Mamba, Rising Star, and many others.
